FEDERAL OFFICIAL VIEWS TOWNSHIP AS DEFENSE AREA

STATE CO-ORDINATOR CAN GET TOWNSHIP SEPARATE
PRIORITY DEFENSE RATING

Mr. Campbell was brought to Niles through the efforts of A. L. Bailey, developer with Eric Stenhammer of the Canyon Heights addition, who spent several hours Monday in Mr. Campbell's office.

The visitor was impressed with the residential advantages of Washington Township, said the district should be recommended as a preferred FHA region for home building for defense workers, and went further to say that if local residents could not or did not build new homes for rental to industrial employees working on defense jobs, THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF WOULD BUILD THEM.

He selected the Pacific States Steel corporation and the California Chemical company as the two most important concerns now engaged in fulfilling contracts for defense items. Both are expanding their plants and are increasing the number of their employees.

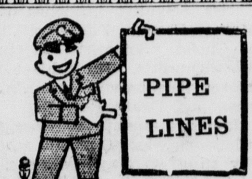

If lack of housing develops as a consequence of this industrial and payroll expansion, and the FHA does not grant the necessary authorization so that building materials can be secured, HE SHOULD BE NOTIFIED SO THAT THE GOVERNMENT CAN GO TO WORK.

Appeal must first be made to the FHA, and if this appeal is not successful, his office, as co-ordinator for the State of California, should be notified.

Mr. Campbell said further that if the FHA does not grant Washington Township inclusion in the Hayward priority defense area within a week or two to notify him and he can have Washington Township designated as a separate priority defense area.

This important and encouraging meeting was attended by Dr. Wilson, Secretary A. J. Ellsworth, Bailey, Stenhammer, Geo. Bonde, E. E. Dias, E. A. Quaresma, Ed Enos, E. G. Glassbrook, Vernon Ellsworth and John Stojanovich.

Howdy Folks: The other day, we were trying to remember how far back the ladies wore bustles and one of the boys in the barber shop suggested that they wore them as far back as possible.

We attended the Niles Theatre, the other night and a young man sitting in front of us addressed his sweetie as "Dove" but the only thing we could see about her that was dove-like was the fact that she was pigeon-toed.

Generally speaking, a barber is generally speaking.

The world improves. We heard about a landlord so kind hearted he offered to help his tenants out when they couldn't pay their rent. You can afford to pay the nominal price we charge for our FLOOR SANDER RENTALS. It's really very reasonable.

PUTS ON "THE DOG"

The dog-gonest sight rolled through Niles last Thursday afternoon when some jilgrim from Las Vegas, Nevada invaded the town with a tiny vehicle, mounted on a baggage truck's hard tires pulled by three dogs with one on the "spare." The driver wore a red helmet and smoked a pipe, the dogs barked a lot, and the pedestrians turned to rubber.

LEGION POST TO MEET PROMPTLY AT 8 O'CLOCK

LATE COMERS TO BE PENALIZED; ARMISTICE DAY PLANS PROCEED

At last Wednesday night's meeting of Washington Township Post, American Legion at Niles, with Sam Scott conducting his first meeting as commander, it was unanimously moved that meetings will start hereafter promptly at 8 o'clock. Late-comers will be obliged to "lubricate" the kitty, the proceeds to go to the Veterans at Livermore Hospital.

Committee appointments for the year were named, as listed below. Visitors present included Bob White, new commander of Livermore Post, Junior Past Commander Smith, and Comrade Sam Ray. Jack Vieux, chairman of the Armistice Day celebration committee reported that arrangements were going forward satisfactorily, and the annual game would be played between the Washington Huskers and the Livermore high squad.

It was announced that a chicken dinner for veterans would be served Sunday, October 26 from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m. in the Memorial building in Oakland at only 50c per plate, the proceeds to go to the annual Christmas activities.

Comrade Vieux reported a naval officer had asked him to have the local Post sponsor a public meeting in Washington Township to stimulate the buying of defense bonds by the public. Action tabled until the next meeting.

Marston Dassel reported that the Washington Township Community Players were preparing a minstrel show to be presented at a date in November.

Walter Waynflete read communications from District Superintendent A. J. Rathbone at Centerville relative to the impossibility of inaugurating an R. O. T. C. corps at Washington High school, just at present, through state lack of officer personnel and equipment. The state advises that there is a long waiting list of schools desiring an R. O. T. C.

Waynflete also reported 30 men signed up and drilling every Monday night at the high school gymnasium; with 50 men more needed. Many of the comrades promised to help with the recruiting.

Upon motion of Arthur Cotton, passed unanimously, the Adjutant, Frank Veit was instructed to write letters of appreciation to James Collins and Jess Johnston, both Newark members of an Oakland State Guard company, thanking these men for drilling the recruits at Centerville every Monday night.

BRILLIANT SPEAKER PAINTS BRIGHTER PICTURE OF WAR'S OUTCOME AT PUBLIC FORUM MEETING AT HIGH SCHOOL MONDAY

CENTERVILLE — The Germans may get through this winter in Russia, but they will not get through another winter" Professor Robert J. Koerner stated emphatically to some 300 persons enjoying the second of the public forums series sponsored by Barton Webb for the evening high school at the high school auditorium. The speaker was introduced by Forum Chairman Jack Rees.

"There won't be any Germans left to live through a second winter in Russia; the cold will kill them" the speaker, who has visited Russia from 1913 to 1935, insisted.

"The German people have been fed on promises while living on ersatz (substitutes) for real food and real clothing . . . not for the two years since the war, but for the eight years since Hitler putsch to power in 1933, the German people have been tightening their belts . . .

"Hitler first filled the hospitals, in the conquered countries with his Russian casualties. Now that these are full his wounded are coming back to Germany . . . He still withholds notifications of deaths in action still hoping for that easy, quick victory. . .

The result is the morale of the German people is now stretched to the breaking point. It is now just ready to blow up. Which accounts for Hitler's desperate efforts to bolster up the home morale by announcing victories before they happen. . .

Russia can afford to lose the Ukraine, Moscow, Leningrad Kiev and all her European regions; still a great Russia will live and fight on, based on the new industrial backbone established nearly 10 years ago east of the Urals.

"So long as 250 four-motored bombers are based at Vladivostok the Japanese will sit very still, with a bucket of sand and a barrel of water outside each bamboo and paper house. . . The Japanese victory over Russia in 1905 was due to Russia's lack of transportation and want of industrial organization. Japan has never made war on a really first class power. When she does the first class power will win.

— Not Universal Power
"Aerial power such as Germany possesses is not universal power. It exists only where the airplanes are operative. The British made their historical evacuation from Dunkerke because they had temporary aerial supremacy at that place. . .

These and other comforting statements were made by this master-scholar of world affairs, who shot his barbs from the standpoint offered by his subject, Russia Our New Ally.

He said only four million of the 165 to 170 million Russians were Soviet (Bolshevist) party members. The greater majority had submitted to the small minority because the latter had obtained national and military control over the nation.

But he pointed out significantly, no Russian sildier now armed with a gun has forsaken Stalin and rushed into the nazi camps, not because the Soviet soldier loves Stalin, but because every Russian loves his homeland and hates the perfidious nazis.

Back in 1923, in violation of the Versailles Treaty the Germans secretly developed their warlike plans in Russia. The Russian and Germany military were pals. They developed mechanized warfare together. Today the Russian staff knows all the nazi signals, and when the Germans claim an encircling movement has taken place, it often happens the Russians have accomplished a counter-encirclement.

It is generally forgotten that the nazi panzers penetrated to Borodino, 25 miles from Moscow, two weeks after the war started. What has become of them? The Russians camly let them through, closed the gap and pinched them off at will. There aren't any panzers left at Borodino.

— Reassuring Statements
Other reassuring statements for Americans which the speaker made were that losing the Ukraine, while a blow to Russia, would not end the war. . . Russia's far eastern army is self-supporting and is independent of its armies now fighting on the western front.

Lindbergh was shown the worst of Russian planes and the best of the German planes on his now-famous trip to Europe; hence his erroneous conclusions. Even Hitler was fooled by the scale of the Russian's military preparation.

The great area east of the Urals to Lake Baikal contains 80 percent of Russia's energy resources; it is being developed industrially—and it is all out of bomb reach from either Germany or Japan.

Hitler has guessed wrong all through the Russian campaign. The average mean temperature between Leningrad and Kiev is 20 below zero; in Moscow it is 45 degrees below. Knowing his troops cannot withstand such a winter he threw in all he had on October 2.

LOCAL BUILDERS ATTEND ALAMEDA PRIORITIES MEET

Lumberman George Bonde and contractor E. E. Dias, both of Niles were among those attending a public hearing held in the Porter School in Alameda Monday night at the instigation of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce at which Douglass Manuel, from the Defense FHA office in San Francisco, explained the defense priorities setup and the small merchants relationship to it.

E. A. Ellsworth reported to the Monday luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber at the City of Florence Restaurant that a sheaf of papers forwarded through his office last week from Township industrial concerns to the OPM office in San Francisco, had been found all in order and had been forwarded to Washington D.C. for consideration and action. This good news was telephoned to Mr. Ellsworth just before the Chamber meeting by E. A. Quaresma, Irvington attorney, who is working with the Niles body to have Washington Township designated a priority defense area.

Several members stated that all areas within 30 miles of a designated priority area were automatically included in that area, as that was the accepted commuting distance between such defense industries and accredited housing regions.

Secretary A. J. Petsche said that defense areas within California had been allotted a quota of 38,000 new homes under a $6,000 maximum cost, out of the 200,000 allocated within the entire United States. Most of the new housing units will be constructed in San Diego, Vallejo, San Francisco, Oakland and other congested army and navy areas.

He read a communication from A. B. Leask, secretary of the Township Community Players requesting support in the forthcoming minstrel show to be presented some time in November.

CONSEQUENCES OF DEFENSE COST TO BE FORUM TOPIC

CENTERVILLE — Frank L. Kidner, lecturer in Economics at the University of California, will speak on the "Economic Consequences of Defense and War" at next Monday's meeting.

Dr. Kidner is expected to suggest answers to the following questions: How will we pay for defense? Are we on the road to inflation? How large a national debt can we stand? Will a depression follow this war? What kind of national and world economy may we expect when peace returns?

Professor Kidner is a brilliant young lecturer in the field of economics. His discussion on Monday evening should enable us all to understand what the defense program is going to mean to our pocket books.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend next Mondays forum in the high school auditorium at 8 p. m.

THREE GRASS FIRES

The Niles Fire Department was called out twice last Friday and once Saturday afternoon to control grass fires on the Western Pacific right of way and up Niles Canyon. No particular damage was done by any of the blazes. Chief A. M. Alves, who has headed the local department for the past 10 years says never in his memory have there been so many calls for help in suppressing grass fires as there have been this fall. Caution is suggested to smokers and to persons burning trash, until the dry season ends.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise."

These words from Jeremiah comprised the Golden Text used Sunday, October 12, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Massachusetts. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon was "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

Included among the Scriptural selections was: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (I Cor. 15: 55-57).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, was also included: "The relinquishment of all faith in death and also of the fear of its sting would raise the standard of health and morals far beyond its present elevation, and would enable us to hold the banner of Christianity aloft with unflinching faith in God, in Life eternal." (p. 426).

Two Artists To Appear in Concert At Livermore

LIVERMORE—When the Northern California WPA Symphony Orchestra presents its concert in the Livermore High School Auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 21, the conductor will be the distinguished violinists and symphony conductor, Nathan Abas.

Abas is a national figure in music. Since the age of 17 he has appeared before the public in concert as symphony director. He has toured Europe and the United States in concert with his own organization and has been identified with radio since that great medium of purveying fine music to the millions first became popular.

Martha Demeter, a young soprano whose appearance is as lovely as her voice, has been invited to sing with the orchestra.

When Martha Demeter came to California five years ago, it was for a vacation. She discovered two things here which caused her never to return east. One is "good living" and the other is her own voice. She has always sung, but it was in the West where the genuine value of her voice became evident. Here she was discovered, studied with Nino Cornel, and is appreciated. As its vocal star, much of the success of the 1939 Folies Bergere on Treasure Island may be attributed to her voice and charming presence.

With the Los Angeles Light Opera Company she appeared opposite John Charles Thomas. Under Armando Agnini she sang the leading role in La Boheme. Many California women's clubs have enthusiastically praised her as a recital artist. In an inevitable sequence from light to more serious music . . . from musical comedy to grand opera and concert work, she makes this initial appearance as soloist with a symphony orchestra.

The complete program to be played at this concert will include the overture to Secrets of Suzanne, Beethoven's Eighth Symphony, the Golden Age Ballet Suite, a group of songs by Martha Demeter, soprano, and the Coppelia Ballet Suite.

The concert will start at 8:15 P.M. in the Livermore High School Auditorium and tickets are available.

CENTERVILLE — Registrations of women interested in a variety of instruction are still being taken in the several classes offered by the evening high school of Washington Union High School, Night School Principal Barton Webb announces.

Tuesday afternoon classes are also omitted because of Parent-Teachers Association dates. Tuesday nights from 7 to 9 o'clock Sibyl Botelho Morse has a class in arts and crafts. This class is repeated on Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock in the art rooms.

The flower arrangement class being taught by Miss Carma White meets Thursday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock and the cooking class on Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

The home hygiene class being taught by Mrs. Alfred Bernstein of Oakland under the auspices of the American Red Cross is held on Friday afternoons at the Irvington grammar school from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Nutrition classes are being arranged at Irvington, Niles and Centerville, dates to be announced later, according to Principal Webb.

Union music will be furnished by Jimmy Davis and his orchestra who plays over NBC and Columbia networks. He also plays at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco and recently filled an engagement at the famous Del Monte Hotel in Monterey county.

The committee in charge of the dance consists of Peol Paniagua, chairman, assisted by Tony Amaral, Joe Martin and Alfonso Rodriguez. The net proceeds of the dance will go into the hospitalization fund maintained by the Decoto Department for the benefit of its members. The Decoto Department is one of the few departments maintaining a full hospitalization service covering their members hurt or sick off duty as well as when on duty.

AT IT AGAIN . . !

During the last war, while more than a million wet votes were overseas as soldiers the prohibs put over the "noble experiment" of prohibition; and time proved that the Means-Wells' efforts did more harm than good.

Gin drinking increased, bootleggers ran a part of the country, legitimate wine and allied interests were crippled industrially, and racketeering had its birth.

Now, with another great war going on, the California Temperance Federation is launching a statewide drive to get 300,000 petitions to place Local Option on the ballot at the next election.

The old movement in new guise calls itself Local Control, or Home Rule for California Counties, Cities and Towns. If passed, it means Centerville can vote dry, Niles can vote wet . . and a lot of good Centerville money comes to Niles. Nice for Niles businessmen, but not so good for Centerville. And vice versa, ad lib.

Wine grape and hop growing are major industries in this state. Some half million persons are gainfully employed in California producing, processing, warehousing and wholesaling intoxicating beverages in this state: not counting the retailer outlets, which occupy another several hundred thousand of our state's population.

So what are we to do? Substitute an inequitable cure for a major evil, now under state control, or endeavor to do our own liquor-policing as towns, cities and counties?

There are plenty of arguments against drinking intoxicating beverages. Alcohol, under Hitler has been pretty well banned in Germany, the original home of the pot-bellied beer drinker. Yet those nazis seem to be pretty tough without drinking stimulants. And Russia, too. France and Italy, where the native populations heretofore lived on wine, have proven to be not so tough.

In America, there is more polite public drinking now than there ever was, particularly among women. Cocktail parties are still the accepted fashion. Perhaps we have something to learn from this war?

The human fly in the prohibition ointment is this: if drinkers can't get their likker from lawful sources, they will get it from unlayful sources, as the 1920 decade proved all too recently.

Local option will make dry spots in the oasis of drink . . it also makes wet spots wetter.

Local option, heretofore tried in California, proved to be a business and a public nuisance. If a man can't get his bottle of beer or glass of wine when and where he wants it he will go where he can get it — and then drink too much.

The problem is a ticklish one. It is not being too badly administered now by the state board of equalization. As a matter of fact, how many drunken persons does the average citizen see in the course of a day or a week? Very few.

Experience — and prudence — would caution letting well enough alone so long as the state itself administers the liquor business. If your neighborhood bar is a public nuisance, you can have it closed up. Or you can object to its license renewal.

If your neighbor drinks too much, beats his wife and lets his children go hungry, we still have police departments and courts to help put him back on his feet.

Editorial Page of the Township Register

Traffic accidents and deaths in California are increasing because we now have more people who drive more cars upon approximately the same number of roads. Abolition of drink might make a dent in the sad total of auto accidents, but the same numbers, or rather, increasing numbers of persons would still be driving an increasing numbers of cars, whether cold sober or only partly so.

The best cure for traffic accidents is more divided highways, segregation of truck traffic, more underpasses, more signals at interesections, and more traffic officers. All these cost money. Our state departments are making major highway safety improvements as rapidly as time and money permit.

So don't blame alcohol entirely for our national traffic ills. The responsible citizen doesn't drink when he drives. The other class of drivers will get their intoxicating liquors in spite of local control.

So our problem, like the latter class of drivers — gets nowhere fast! — W.W.

Stealing Mrs. Gladys Williamson's wit: Hitler is finding his Russian adventure a "kick in the panzers"!

CIRCUMSTANCES WILL DESTROY THE NAZIS.

The people of the U. S. A. from the President down seem to accept the belief that we must go to war to defeat Hitler, else he will win. So the entire country is being put on a severer war-basis today than we were 20 odd years ago when we were actively engaged in a declared war against Germany, British, and our air force may be needed to aid the British, and our air force may be needed to aid the British, and possibly the Russians, — and we may declare war in order to use several arms of our services honorably, there is little prospect of our giant army ever being put to use.

Why? Because our transport system is now fully occupied conveying weapons and foodstuffs to our Allies. In addition, we could not land an expeditionary force any place in time to be of any use, because the theatre of this war shifts its scenes too rapidly for us, so far away, to catch up with it effectively. We do not have a four year stalemate on a western or any other front to help break.

Columnists (as Sticky Ickes calls them) everywhere view with alarm the almost-certainty of a Hitler victory. It does not seem to occur to them that there can and will be a Hitler defeat, just as sudden and sure as was the Kaiser's crack up in the last war, and just as unexpected. One week, everybody was fighting; the next week it was all over. And the same elements which caused the German defeat in the last war, are now at work, on even grander scale to contribute to the nazi downfall in this war. For example:

The British blockade is much more effective and more severe; the submarine warfare has never touched the first war's total of sinkings; starvation, already in Italy and France, is becoming increasingly apparent in German proper. Food rationing there, instead of letting up as promised by Dare Fearer, becomes increasingly drastic.

The nazis, notwithstanding their large reserves of supply. They have heretofore ravaged countries of fuel, munitions and foods, have absolutely no conquered nations — for the army's, not the civil populace's benefit; but there is nothing being left by the Russians which can be of any use to the invading nazis.

There losses of men and materials in Russia is terrific. They have withdrawn four-fifths of their troops from Belgian, France and other so-called conquered territories to aid in battering the eastern front.

The soldiers demanded by Hitler from Italy and Bulgaria have not been forthcoming. The Italians hate the nazis and the Bulgarians are playing a sharp game — and getting away with it.

Winter is coming on, making them privations intense for everybody.

Uprisings in the supposedly "conquered" territories are increasing in frequency and severity.

Many of Germany's shipping and manufacturing centers have been bombed by the RAF into uselessness, including Hamburg, Bremen, Essen and Emden.

So there's the picture: a warrior nation, with only a given number of men and resources, exhausting itself at a terrific pace, with all compensating sources of supply entirely cut off.

According to our Founding Fathers: the power of a government is derived from the consent of the governed.

There are 15 nations in Europe which have never consented to Hitler's brand of "government." The power is always with the masses, and when they rise up no government ever stands against them.

An apt cartoon in the daily papers, entitled "Hitler's Triumphal New Order" showed him standing with a smoking pistol over a Europe all the lands of which were covered from sight by the bodies of the slain. If Hitler wishes to rule an Empire of the Dead, he is succeeding.

The American people, the last and greatest of free peoples, should hold firm in their hearts the solid convictions that Hitler, the servant of evil, and all that the nazis stand for, will destroy themselves. This has been the history of civilization for the past 2,000 years and Right and Truth only work one way: towards justice and freedom.

Russia is being put to the torch now because the Russians quit cold in the last war. Whether Moscow falls or not there will always be a Russia, and England, and a new France, builded from the ashes and the anguish of the old.

The U.S.A., — God's Country — remains free.

ECONOMY IS INDICATED

What with increasing taxes, rising cost of living, and income taxes to be paid by most everyone next March, persons of moderate incomes are going to have to learn to do without certain pleasures, if they want to remain solvent.

The usual Sunday drives or weekend outings may have to be eliminated in favor of staying home and working in the garden. Business men and lodge women who are accustomed to attending conventions in distant parts of the state, at a cost of from $20 to $50, may soon find themselves unable to spare money for this enjoyable purpose.

Businessmen who are in the habit of grabbing the 'phone for a long distance call every time they need anything will have to develop the lost art of writing letters — at 3c per, and no tax.

In fact, the lost art of walking to market and to the postoffice may come into fashion again. Short runs use lots of gasoline and sure put the miles on your car.

In other words, our national defense effort is reaching down into the lives of all of us. If we use our heads, we can remain on top; . . if we don't, we are not good American citizens.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By: Your Editor.

CLARITY — Doctor Koerner prefaced his moving address at the public forum Monday evening at Centerville by emphatically stating he was not going to quote other men's ideas and conclusions about world conditions; he was going to express HIS OWN ideas and conclusions on this vast and vital subject.

And that's about the best advice any intelligent person can receive on how to develop their own mental faculties, namely: to browse around and pick up all the knowledge you can from all the sources available. THEN — munch it over and digest it yourself and form your own conclusions.

Only in this way can you develop and maintain your own individuality, and arrive at anything resembling uniqueness and originality.

Ergo, leaders in thought "think their own think".

CENTERVILLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

By Harold Alameda

The eighth grade class of the Centerville Elementary school met on Wednesday, October 8. The class decided to sponsor a benefit show on Thursday evening, November 6, at 7:45 o'clock in the school auditorium. A talking motion picture will be shown. The committee in charge is composed of Arthur Thomas, Jacquelyn Kitchings, Annette Kirkish, Alfred Gomes, and Bernadine Francis.

A committee was also appointed to arrange a program for Halloween. The members of that committee are Alfred Gomes, Ethel Wauhab and Alwin Lewis. Eva Janson, Betty Cotter, and Nihoko Shimizu were appointed to take care of refreshments for the occasion.

The class officers are: Harold Alameda, president; Alfred Gomes, vice-president; Mihoko Shimizu, secretary; Leon Stalcup, treasurer; Ethel Wauhab, assistant treasurer.

Mr. W. B. Sutherland, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, visited the Centerville Elementary school on Monday afternoon, October 6. Mr. Sutherland showed the students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades a very interesting picture entitled "A Continent is Bridged."

Miss Lorene Killey of the county superintendent's office visited the school on Tuesday, October 7 and showed the students of the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade classes some very interesting pictures about fire prevention.

The students are participating in an essay contest on fire prevention so the motion pictures were most timely.

Mr. W. H. Way showed the sixth, seventh and eighth grade students slides on fire prevention on October 9. The slides were most interesting and the students gained ideas for the essays which they are writing on fire prevention.

The tag football teams of the school have been busy practicing and playing the various teams they have on their schedule.

JAUCH IS HELPING WITH LANDSCAPING AT CAL. POLYTECHNIC

A letter received late last week from Ed Jauch, formerly of Niles, says he is assisting with the landscape development projects of the new structures on the campus at the California Polytechnic Institute at San Luis Obispo, where he is taking post graduate work. In December he will begin his degree work in landscaping.

He says he misses the friendly atmosphere of the Niles community... and wisely enclosed payment for a subscription to The Township Register.

NEWARK SCHOOL NEWS

BRILLIANT SPEAKER

more men killed than the defenders. It is to be expected the German losses are tremendous. It is my belief the best of the German pilots, panzers and troops now lie buried in Russia.

In 1918 the Germans seized the Ukraine and promised their people white bread. The German people did not get any white bread — so their morale cracked. The Germans 23 years later are still probably needing white bread, and the Germans have not got the Ukraine yet.

— Russia in the Way

Hitler can't dominate Europe nor Japan Asia until Russia is knocked out. It doesn't matter who rules Russia. The Germans were humiliated by losing the last war; it was not the treaty of Versailles which really humiliated them, though they used that excuse to try the same gamble again. To this day the German general staff does not want to fight Russia; they know each other and their methods too well. And they know each others' signals of play.

Dr. Koerner said a demolition of Berlin, after fashion dealt London and Coventry by the Luftwaffe, was a date for the RAF for November 1. He indicated the sending of British air fleets to aid Russia might cause the plan to be dropped.

The speaker was a member of a fact-finding commission of 150 American scholars sent to Europe in 1918 to try and determine the basis upon which the future peace was to be made. Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Foch and Masaryk were all agreed the war would run into 1919. When asked in March 1918 what his opinion was the young doctor horrified his superiors by predicting the war would end that year. He knew the intolerable civilian conditions in Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey would precipitate the end. And so it did.

Because of his temerity he was asked to resign from the commission... The doctor received a promotion instead!

Wilson's 14 points he said the Germans accepted after they had worked over them. The Churchill-Roosevelt 7 points for the future peace in the present war Germany will again accept — and work over to suit herself.

SPORTSMEN ENJOY HUNTING PICTURES

NEWARK — Local sportsmen enjoyed the showing of the pictures of his recent hunting trips to Canada by Bill Foster, famous big game hunter of Rio Vista, Thursday evening at the Newark school auditorium. The actual taking of record moose, grizzly bear, elk, caribou, and other large animals in the Canadian wilds was shown in the pictures. Sportsmen all over the United States have declared them the best hunting pictures even taken by an amateur photographer in the field.

A picture entitled "Shooting Geese in California" made last season at the Kuhl Gun Club near Maxwell was also shown.

C. E. ELECTS

The Centerville C. E. of the Presbyterian church held an election of officers at their meeting on Sunday evening. The following officers will take over on October 14th at which time there will be a luncheon and installation. David Webster, president; Roland Adams, vice-president and Francis Hilton, secretary-treasurer. The outgoing officers were Elaine Justus, Dorothy Adams and Frances Hilton, retained. Reverend Kirk will have charge of the group from now on as Reverend Adams will be busy elsewhere. Dorothy Adams

TURKEY GROWERS EXPECT GOOD HOLIDAY PRICES

SACRAMENTO—Turkey growers of California have produced a record crop of turkeys this year for the fall holiday season, according to the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service at the State Department of Agriculture.

The estimated production for 1941 is set at 3,720,000 turkeys 5 per cent more than the 1940 turkey crop of 3,543,000 birds. About two-thirds of the crop is usually marketed before January 1.

Prices for turkeys in recent weeks have been averaging 25 to 35 per cent higher than at the same period last year.

On the basis of market prices income from the California turkey crop will total more than $11,000,000 as compared to $9,304,000 for the 1940 crop.

National production of turkeys in 1941 is estimated at 33,533,000 birds compared with 33,463,000 raised last year, after allowing for the serious November 1940 storm losses in some western states.

While the 1941 birds are expected to go to market a bit heavier than last year, cold storage holdings on September 1 were smaller than in 1940 by about a half million turkeys, and more birds than last season will probably be held out of the market to produce eggs for next spring hatching.

The failure to raise the number of turkeys that had been intended in the spring is explained by the scarcity and high price of turkey eggs available because of the reduction in breeding stock last winter.

BAY CITY TO HOLD AUTO SHOW OCTOBER 18 - 26

SAN FRANCISCO — San Francisco Auto Dealers were today busy preparing to make the forthcoming Auto Show in the Civic Auditorium, October 18 to 26 inclusive, an exhibit that would portray not only the sparkling new 1942 model motor cars but also acquaint the public with the important and impressive role that the automobile manufacturing companies are playing in defense production.

Exhibitors are gathering data and pictures that will show the part played in this program by the automobile builders. Dealers will also have exhibits which will clearly prove to the public that no inferior substitutes are being used in this year's models and that the rumours to the effect that the 1942 models would be inferior, in either appearance or performance, because of material shortages are groundless.

Due to the fact that San Francisco is one of the few cities in the country staging an Auto Show this year makes the Northern California public the national testing ground for the reception of the new cars. Many factories are planning on sending their top sales executives to this city to watch the public reaction to the cars in the various displays.

Tod Bates, Manager of the Dealer Association, went to New York and closed the deal with Bob Hope, radio's ace comedian and entertainer, to again make an appearance on the Civic Auditorium stage.

NEWARK NINE DEFEATS BAKERS, SCORE 16 TO 7

(Held over from last week)

NEWARK — The Newark Sportsmen baseball team under the management of Henry Nunes went on a hitting spree Sunday at the Newark School grounds to defeat the Colombo Bakers of Oakland by a score of 16 to 7. Newark has a record today for four wins and five losses for the season. The Newark club has a well-balanced team with some very outstanding ballplayers. The club is trying to enter a winter league in Oakland or in Washington Township, if Washington Township can form four teams along with Hayward.

The Newark nine collected fourteen hits off Pitchers Maglaras and Hart, while Roy Duarte and Clarence Stewart, Newark pitchers, allowed ten hits. Roy Duarte, a high school lad, is a great pitcher, and the Newark club is hoping he will continue to be as effective as he has been, in order that Newark may enter in some winter league with a well-balanced club.

Leonard Bettencourt was the star of Sunday's game, playing good defense ball and collecting 3 hits out of 6 tries, one a tremendous home run. The star hitters for Newark were Mervin Marshall, gathering 4 hits out of 6 tries, one a double; Clarence Soito, who has again returned to the line up after a temporary rest, who hit a double and triple out of 6 tries; Stanley Roderick, centerfielder, a new comer to the team, who hit a single, double, and triple out of 6 tries.

Stanley Roderick, who is now playing for the Newark club, was a famous pitcher with the United States Navy several years ago. F. Medeiros and Maglaras for the losers each hit a home run.

WHEN POINTS GET THIN

Spark plugs, once the victims of carbon, now have a new enemy — overwork, states the National Automobile Club. Plugs are so good these days that the engines in which they perform are so much better than they used to be, that, like the brook, they seem to go on forever. The plug point that has been used for many miles, however, may be clean as a whistle, but having fired millions of gasoline charges it becomes thin. In this condition it gets red hot after a few minutes use and causes serious misfiring. A new plug will assure much better performance.

THE SPIRIT OF OLD ABE

SHOOTING PHEASANT OUT OF SEASON COSTS HUNTER $25

A sentence of 10 days in jail was meted out to George Guzman, 18 of Centerville, who pleaded guilty to reckless driving and operating a car without a license. He was haled into court after he was said to have struck a parked car.

ALVARADO MAY HAVE AN AIRPORT

ALVARADO — It is reported that 33 acres of land at the end of Union City Road have been purchased for an airplane landing field for the purpose of teaching pilots. The purchaser of the land is said to be a Filipino who has trained 70 Chinese pilots who have been fighting with the Chinese air force. He says there is a big field for teaching pilots and has made a great success of his ventures.

He considers the location of Alvarado superb in smooth flat land for taking off and landing and in case of emergency would give the United States a fine emergency landing field.

Five more men from Newark will probably enlist this week, according to Corporal James Collins of the Oakland Battalion, Company B First Regiment, who is serving each Monday evening at the high school gymnasium as a drill sergeant along with Private First Class, Jesse Johnston also of Newark.

All men are encouraged to join the guard between the ages of 18 and 64. Drills are held each Monday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 at the high school gymnasium. In order to form a permanent company here and receive material 75 men must sign up. That is why so much advertising is being done and groups of men and various organizations have been appealing to individuals between 18 and 64. Protect your home country and join the state guard.

NILES CLUB PLANS BASS FISHING TRIP OCTOBER 26

Thirty-five members of the Niles Sportsmen's club met in Solon's Tavern on Thursday night of last week with Dr. T. C. Wilson in the chair. An excellent barbecued chicken dinner was enjoyed.

Attention was drawn to the fact that quail, duck and pheasant seasons would soon open and it was proposed to divide the membership into two teams, those with names from A to H and from H to Z, the members of which who shot the most game, plus predatory animals prior to the next meeting in November, to be the guests of the losing team. The proposal was tabled.

The idea of a turkey shoot went by the boards in favor of a bass fishing trip for club members, leaving from San Pablo on Sunday, October 26. Secretary Leon Solon is now taking reservations, accompanied by fees of $2 per man. Some 10 members indicated their willingness to go. Bill Estudillo was appointed to make the boat reservation.

Bill Bunk will be program chairman of the next meeting. The date will be written on the meeting notice cards by the secretary, who tried to secure Sports Writer Bob Dyer of the Oakland Tribune for the recent meeting, without success. He will try to get Sports Writer Powell of the San Francisco Examiner to talk to the next meeting in November.

The driver of the truck was Lewis Carlo Pia of Mt. View.

May's automobile, which was damaged considerably, was towed into the Newark Garage. Other passengers with him were Harold Azeveda of Centerville; Henry Marshall and James Laudenslager of Newark. Both George and his passengers were taken immediately to the emergency hospital for first aid with Dr. Grau at Niles in charge, as they were badly shaken up and suffered cuts on the face and hands.

Would You EAT --

HALF A PECK OF STRING BEANS
IN ONE DAY?

If six pounds, or half a peck of fresh string beans were laid end-to-end, it might, or might not be a good idea, but you'd have to eat just that many beans if you were to receive the daily calcium required by your system.

Here's a Tip

Just One Quart of SANITARY DAIRY MILK contains as much calcium as does half a peck of fresh string beans.
